To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that I write to you to recommend Jose Climaco to you. He is an outstanding student and it has been a great pleasure to have him in my technology classes. Jose is a valuable member of our Technology Academy; he is very intelligent, responsible, and dedicated.

Jose has a unique attitude that has a positive impact on the people around him because he pushes himself and others to reach higher levels of success. As member of the Technology Academy, Jose has participated in the Net Generation Youth program, an affiliation with foreign countries such as South Africa, as well as in USC's Junior Game Designer institute. To both these groups Jose was a valuable component; always supplying ideas for evolvment and improvement.

Jose is someone I highly support and recommend. I look forward to seeing where his goals and aspirations take him. Jose will be an asset to any organization, school, or company.

If you have any questions or concerns in regards to Jose, please feel free to contact me at (323) 854-6817. Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,

Leslie Aaronson
